Content Management of site structure and content pages, consisting of elements like news, guestbooks, articles and photo galleries, etc..

Falkirk Football Club

- E-telegence.com took over the development of this site in the summer of 2004. We have re-designed the home page and added various other features. E-telegence has helped to sell advertising space on this site for the client. E-telegence acts as an "e-business" manager for this client, by helping with the creation and implementation of an effective e-business strategy for Falkirk Football Club. Currently the club has a new and improved web site and will have their on-line shop online soon for its supporters. This site receives in excess of 400,000 unique visitors a year.

- E-telegence.com created "Falkirk FC TV" for the club in 2007, providing a platform to securely manage the clubs requirement for streaming audio and video to it's fanbase

Falkirk TV Features
